

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	Page
I. Introduction to Historic Preservation
What is historic preservation?	I-1
What are the "roots" of historic preservation?	I-3
What are the benefits of historic preservation?	I-4
Historic Preservation in Monterey.	I-7
II. Developmental History of Monterey
The First Inhabitants - The Indians of Monterey	II-1
The Spanish Era - Mission and Presidio (1542-1821)	II-4
Monterey Under Mexican Rule - The Pueblo and Ranchos (1821-1846)	II-13
The Anglo-American Conquest - The War with Mexico (1846-1849)	II-16
Monterey, "The Old Pacific Capitol" (1850-1879)	II-19
"The Gilded Ages" - The Hotel Del Monte and the Del Monte Properties (1880-1915)	II-23
The Sardine Industry (1900-1946)	II-26
War in the Twentieth Century and Monterey	II-29
Monterey - Its Present and Its Future	II-31
III. Architectural Styles in Monterey
The Spanish Period (1769-1821)	III-1
The Mexican Adobes (1821-1835)	III-2
Monterey Colonial Style (1835-1846)	III-3
The Greek Revival (c. 1850s-1860s)	III-4
Victorian Architecture (c. 1860-1900)	III-5
Colonial Revival (c. 1890s-1920)	III-6
Shingle Style or First Bay Tradition (c. 1890s-early 1930s)	III-7
Mission Revival (c. 1890s-1915)	III-8
The Bungalow Style (c. 1905-1925)	III-9
Spanish Colonial Revival (c. 1915-1930s)	III-10
Period Revivals (c. 1920-1930s)	III-11
Moderne (1935-1950)	III-12
Second Bay Tradition (c. 1930+)	III-12
Wrightian Architecture (c. 1935+)	III-13
The International Style (1930+)	III-14
The Third Bay Tradition (1960+) (Plates follow)
IV. The Preliminary Survey
Methodology	IV-1
A Note on the Structures' Entries	IV-4
The Survey (chronologically by seven periods)	IV-7
Suggested Criteria	IV-119

V. Program Recommendations

The Case for Preservation in Monterey	V-1
Suggested Policies	V-1
Programs
1. Comprehensive Survey	V-2
2. Preservation Board	V-3
3. Public and Private Programs	V-4
a. Review of existing building and fire codes
b. Capital Improvement programs
c. Property tax incentives for restored buildings
d. Zoning Ordinance possibilities
e. Architectural review
f. Development rights transfers
g. Planning studies
h. Federal and State landmark designations
i. Tree ordinance
4. Public Funding Opportunities	V-11
a. National Park Service historic preservation grants-in-aid program
b. Federal Housing and Community Development Act of 1974
c. National Endowment for the Arts
d. National Endowment for the Humanities
e. Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1974
f. State Beach, Park, Recreation and Historical Facilities Bond Act of 1974
g. Federal Community Development Revenue Sharing Program
h. Revolving Funds
i. Protective Easements
5. Private Funding Opportunities	V-13
a. Private foundations
b. Private, non-profit groups
c. Commercial restoration
d. Individual efforts
6. Educational Programs	V-14
a. Tours
b. Publications

VI. Appendix

Bibliography
The Preliminary Survey - Forms and Secondary Structures
National and State Register Criteria
Suggested Design Principles and Standards for New and Remodeled Construction Within Historic Preservation Districts
Glossary of Architectural Terms

VII. Plates

Photographs of Historic and Significant Buildings
---	--